MEMORANDUM

TO: Academic Deans and Directors

FROM: Reed Dasenbrock
Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

SUBJECT: Reminder about Examinations

The schedule for final examinations is published in the Fall 2013 Registration Guide (formerly called Schedule of Classes) on page 8. In addition, tradition and policy provide that final examinations are required in all undergraduate courses except writing courses, directed reading, creative arts, research, seminars, internships, and field experiences. Final examinations are required in Writing Intensive (W) courses, unless the course is in one of the above categories. Moreover, examinations must be taken during the scheduled period. No examinations (other than laboratory tests and short quizzes) are allowed during the two calendar weeks prior to the last day of instruction and final examination period. Therefore, Wednesday, November 27, 2013 is the last day for midterm examinations this semester.

Take-home examinations may be distributed at the discretion of the course instructor, but completion cannot be required prior to the date and time in the published final examination schedule.
